Dear Brother Staley:

Thank you very much for your most recent letter concerning our gospel meeting schedule beginning Sunday morning, July 9, and continuing to Friday evening, July 14. You were very thoughtful to include a schedule of the services for that week, and I appreciate it. In the future you might want to write and tell me about what class I am scheduled to teach Sunday morning, July 9, if such is arranged. I do notice that we will have two worship services Sunday morning, and that the week-day services are scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

At this point I am sorry I cannot give you any information as to where I desire to stay. If my family is with me we may be staying each night at the J. C. Goodpastures. However, since the Goodpastures live completely across Nashville from you, it may be best for me to stay in your immediate community so that I can be available for all the activities connected with the meeting.

If acceptable to you, I would like to reserve judgement on this matter until a little later. I will feel free to contact you as soon as I am certain of the arrangements that I will need. Thank you for writing. I look forward to a pleasant, and I pray, successful gospel meeting with the Hendersonville congregation.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
